Order Denying Motion for Compassionate Release Without Prejudice

Defendant filed a pro se motion that the Court construed as a motion for compassionate release under the First Step Act of 2018. Dkt. 325. The Court appointed counsel to represent Defendant. Dkt. 326. Counsel appeared on Defendant's behalf, dkt. 327, but then withdrew, dkts. 346, 347.

After the Court granted counsel leave to withdraw, the Court ordered Defendant to supplement his motion for compassionate release with information about whether he had been vaccinated against COVID-19. Dkt. 347. The Court also required him to provide any other information or argument that might inform the Court's discretion to grant or deny his motion for compassionate release. Id. The deadline for filing the required supplement was September 24, 2021. Id. The Court warned Defendant that his motion for compassionate release would be deemed abandoned and denied without prejudice if he did not file a supplement as required. Id. The Court mailed its Order to Defendant on August 10, 2021.

As of the writing of this Order, Defendant has not supplemented his motion for compassionate release as required, and the deadline for doing so has passed. Accordingly, the Court considers Defendant's motion for compassionate release abandoned, and the motion, dkt. [325], is denied without prejudice. Nothing in this Order, however, prohibits Defendant from filing a new motion for compassionate release.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
